

INDUSTRIAL ENGINEERING AND QUALITY CONTROL MANAGER

Job Description Overview

The Industrial Engineering and Quality Control Manager position is responsible for supervision of PRAB/Hapman production efficiency coordinator, manufacturing engineers (shop & ERP), quality assurance/control programs, and process instruction development. This position reports to the Vice President, Manufacturing.

Qualifications

- Dedication to excellence and quality.
- Department Manager – KMC Global Appendix A
- Thorough knowledge of manufacturing and quality control processes
- Proficient with Microsoft Office Suite
- ERP Software knowledge
- AutoCAD Knowledge
- Bachelor's Degree – Manufacturing Environment
- Five to seven years' industrial management experience

Responsibilities

- Promote excellence throughout the department
- Design and maintain lean manufacturing processes
- Research new manufacturing technologies
- Dialogue with engineering, manufacturing engineering, plant management, and shop personnel
- Development and continuous improvement of manufacturing process instructions
- Development and sustainability of a quality assurance program
- Development and sustainability of a quality control program
- Employee Relation Skills